Focus Area Managers

ANGELA DI STASI is Full Professor of EU Law and International Law, General Secretary of the Italian Society of International and EU Law (SIDI-ISIL), Director of the "Observatory on the Area of Freedom, Security and Justice", Co-founder of the International & European Criminal Law Observatory on Cultural Issues, Human Rights, and Security (IECLO), Scientific Coordinator of the Ph.D. Programme in Legal Sciences at the University of Salerno, and Director of the online scientific review "Freedom, Security & Justice: European Legal Studies" (ESI, Scientific Review Class A). She has devised and implemented numerous projects on EU law as Coordinator (among others): Jean Monnet Chair Holder "Judicial protection of fundamental rights in the European Area of Freedom, Security and Justice" – 2017/2020, Co-responsible for the Jean Monnet Module "Migration and Fundamental Rights at the Southern Borders of the European Union" (2014/17), member of the teaching staff of the Jean Monnet Module EU-DRAW (2022-2025), member of the team staff of the Jean Monnet Chair EUVALWEB (2022-2025), member of the teaching staff of the Jean Monnet Module EU-GLOBACT (2023-2026), Principal Investigator of the Project of Relevant National Interest (PRIN 2017) "International Migrations, State, Sovereignty and Human Rights: Open Legal Issues" (2020/2023). She is the author of 9 books on the protection of human rights in regional systems (EU, Council of Europe, InterAmerican organisations) and more than 100 publications on various topics of international and European law.

Project funded by European Commission Erasmus + Programme – Jean Monnet Action Project number 101126599. Funded by the European Union. Views and opinions expressed are however those of the author(s) only and do not necessarily reflect those of the European Union or the European Education and Culture Executive Agency (EACEA). Neither the European Union nor EACEA can be held responsible for them