

Jean Monnet Module EU-GLOBACT

---

Transnational Crime and EU Law: towards Global Action against Cross-border
Threats to common security, rule of law,
and human rights

Research Staff

STEFANO BUSILLO is a Ph.D. Candidate in “Legal Sciences” (International, European and Comparative Law) at the Department of Legal Sciences, University of Salerno. Honorary fellow and teaching assistant in European Union Law, European Union Migration Law, International Criminal Law and International Organizations at the Department of Legal Sciences (School of Law), University of Salerno, as well as in Diplomatic and Consular Law at the Department of Political and Social Studies, University of Salerno, Stefano Busillo spent a traineeship period in Bruxelles working for an Italian law firm dealing with European Law (more precisely Competition and Market Regulation Law). After that, he has started off as Lawyer at the Bar of Salerno. Having developed over the years a deep interest in International and EU Law, he actively serves as member of the EUVALWEB Legal Observatory as Young Researcher, as well as Editorial Assistant for the Scientific Journal EUWEB Legal Essays. Global & International Perspectives, as well as Researcher at the International and European Criminal Law Observatory on Cultural Issues, Human Rights, and Security (IECLOCUHRSE). He also is author of scientific publications on the topics of Digitalization of Criminal Justice, International Organizations and Migration Law.

E-mail:

sbusillo@unisa.it

UNIVERSITÀ DEGLI STUDI DI SALERNO

Co-funded by the European Union

IECLO

---

Project funded by European Commission Erasmus + Programme – Jean Monnet Action Project number 101126599. Funded by the European Union. Views and opinions expressed are however those of the author(s) only and do not necessarily reflect those of the European Union or the European Education and Culture Executive Agency (EACEA). Neither the European Union nor EACEA can be held responsible for them