

Jean Monnet Module EU-GLOBACT

Transnational Crime and EU Law: towards Global Action against Cross-border Threats to common security, rule of law, and human rights

Module Leader

ANNA ORIOLO, Ph.D., is Associate Professor of International Law, Lecturer of “European Union Law” and “European and International Criminal Law”, Director of the International & European Criminal Law Observatory (IECLO), at the Department of Legal Sciences (School of Law), of the University of Salerno; Lecturer of “Diplomatic and Consular Law” and “Institutions of International Law” at the Department of Management & Innovation Systems of the same University where he also obtained a Ph.D. in “International Law and Domestic Law in International Matters”; Visiting Professor at the University of Aix-Marseille (France); Leader of the Jean Monnet Module EU-GLOBACT (Transnational Crime and EU Law) co-funded by the European Commission (2023-2026); former Managing Editor of The Global Community YILJ (Class A); General Editor of the Journal of International Criminal Law; Invited Peer Reviewer of the International Criminal Law Review (Class A); Member of the Referee Committee for the Journal Freedom, Security & Justice. European Legal Studies (Class A), included in the Marquis Who's Who in the World; Member of the "Italian Society of International Law and European Union Law" (SIDI) and of the "Italian Association of European Union Law Scholars" (AISDUE); Appointed by the Rector as Representative of the Legal Area in the Technical-Scientific Committee of the Language Center of the University of Salerno; Lawyer.

E-mail:

aoriolo@unisa.it

Academic Online Profile:

<https://docenti.unisa.it/004583/curriculum>

UNIVERSITÀ DEGLI STUDI DI SALERNO

IECLO

Project funded by European Commission Erasmus + Programme – Jean Monnet Action Project number 101126599. Funded by the European Union. Views and opinions expressed are however those of the author(s) only and do not necessarily reflect those of the European Union or the European Education and Culture Executive Agency (EACEA). Neither the European Union nor EACEA can be held responsible for them