

Jean Monnet Module
EU-GLOBACT

Transnational Crime and EU Law:
towards Global Action against Cross-border
Threats to common security, rule of law,
and human rights

Communications & External Relations Section (CERS)

FRANCESCO POTENZA is Graduated (Master Degree) in Law at the Department of Legal Sciences (School of Law) of the University of Salerno (Italy), with a thesis in International Criminal Law on Transnational crimes and offences against cultural property. After attending a post-lauream internship at the Court of Appeal of Salerno (“Ufficio di Sorveglianza”), he’s currently registered at the Bar of Salerno as Trainee Lawyer. Motivated by a strong research passion and interested in international and EU and issues, Francesco Potenza was selected to participate in several Research Workshops in the framework of International criminal law lectures. He’s senior member of the International and European Criminal Law Observatory (IECLO) and Coordinator of the Communication and External Relations Staff

(CERS) at the Jean Monnet Module EU-GLOBACT at the Department of Legal Sciences of the University of Salerno. He’s also author of publications in International Criminal Law and editorial assistant at the Journal of International Criminal Law (JICL).

His activities also include the role of President of the Rotaract Club Potenza Torre Guevara, Italy.

UNIVERSITÀ DEGLI STUDI DI SALERNO

Co-funded by the European Union

IECLO