EU- GLOBACT Bilateral Hub

Italian-French Dialogue on Future Research & Synergies

Organizational Meetings | 26 February 2026 – 9:00 AM -27; February 4:00 PM
Host Institution: IECLO Headquarters, University of Salerno (UNISA)

The University of Salerno (UNISA), through its International and European Criminal Law Observatory (IECLO), is honored to host the visiting French academic delegation for the EU-GLOBACT Bilateral Hub. These meetings are dedicated to consolidating the partnership between the two university poles within the framework of the Jean Monnet EUGLOBACT project.

The sessions will focus on identifying and developing future collaborative opportunities, with a particular emphasis on:

- Joint Editorial Projects: Coordinating high-impact publications, special issues in peer-reviewed journals, and collective volumes focused on transnational issues.
- Research Synergies: Aligning scientific goals to apply for European grants and international funding calls.
- Educational Innovation: Exploring the potential for joint seminars, workshops, and student mobility programs.

By bridging these two academic traditions, the meetings aim to foster a long-term transnational alliance, enhancing the impact of the Jean Monnet Module EU-GLOBACT on the global academic stage.
